

KIM ROBBINS FOR NEPEAN

The Nepean Pledge

When I wear a Kim Robbins shirt, hold a sign, knock on a door, hand out any collateral or talk to someone about our campaign, I am the campaign. People will judge Kim by what I do. I take that seriously.

I commit to The Nepean Standard:

- Respect. I treat everyone the same way, whether they're voting for Kim or someone else. Other candidates' volunteers included. Especially them.
- Honesty. I don't overstate what Kim will do, I don't run down her opponents, and if I don't know something, I say so.
- My opinions are mine. If I get into a conversation about my own views, I make it clear I'm speaking for myself, not for Kim or the campaign.
- I leave it better. Every interaction, every street, every conversation. Leave Nepean better than I found it.

If something goes wrong, or I'm not sure what to do, I call my team leader. I don't improvise under pressure.

Leave Nepean better than we found it.
